

Tania Hodges

Tania has iwi affiliations with Ngāti Pāhauwera, Ngāti Ranginui, Ngāti Hauā, Ngāti Maniapoto and Ngāti Tūwharetoa.

She is a specialist Consultant, Manager and Director with extensive experience in funding, contracting, strategy, change management, Māori and Iwi relationships, leadership, workforce and community development.

Tania is the Managing Director of Digital Indigenous and has been facilitating leadership training programmes since 2002. Tania holds several governance roles including Ministerial Appointment to the Waikato District Health Board; Deputy Chair of Ngāti Pāhauwera Development and Tiaki Trusts; Director on the Ngāti Pāhauwera Commercial Development Limited and is a Justice of the Peace.

Tania overtime has completed an MBA (with Distinction), BSocSci, Grad Dip Mgmt. St, PGCBR and Grad Dip (Te Reo Māori) to compliment her Registered Psychiatric Nursing qualification (RPN).

Tania is passionate about making a positive difference and strives for excellence in both worlds.

“A social cultural conscience with a business edge.”

